DISCLAIMERS

A High Risk Activities Worksheet (AF 4391) is required to participate in ANY high risk activity, for ALL Active Duty Personnel. It is required and must be completed before they participate in most of our Outdoor Rec Adventure Programs. This responsibility lies solely on the Active Duty participant and must be submitted to CC or AOC.

OAP CANCELATION POLICY

- Cancellations 30 days or more before a multi-day activity start date are refundable in full unless otherwise stated. Cancellations within 30 days of a multi-day activity will not be refunded unless someone takes your place on the activity. Any refunds issued in this case will be charged a service fee of 10% of the total price for the activity.
- Cancellations within 72 hours of the activity date will NOT be refunded or rescheduled unless otherwise stated.
- "No Shows" are non-refundable and will not be rescheduled.
- Full payment for all trips is due at time of registration.
- All trips are subject to cancellation due to unsafe weather or conditions outside of our control. In this event, the trip will be rescheduled or you may opt for a refund minus irretrievable deposits. In the case of cancellation due to insufficient participation, a full refund will be issued.
- Refunds may be given at any time when a medical emergency or military TDY/PCS orders prohibit participation. A signed doctor's note or signed orders must be presented in order to receive a refund in these cases. If a refund is given for a multi-day trip in this instance, OAP will retain a service fee of 10% of the total price for the activity.

BACKCOUNTRY TOURING

Colorado is best known for its amazing mountains. From 14ers, to rolling hills, the peaks and valleys that define this wonderful state constantly beckon the adventurous and restful alike. With the snow industry booming at resorts around the state, the experience of being in the mountains can get lost in the crowds, lift line and the mad dash to harvest even one run of fresh snow. Don't fight the masses and be bound by a trail map. Colorado has some of the highest quality backcountry skiing and riding in the world, with light powder and incredible views few venture to see. Our state-of-the-art specialized lightweight equipment and safety gear allows you to move efficiently and safely through the winter wilderness. While earning your turns is certainly more work than riding a lift, you will be rewarded with fresh snow, no lines to stand in and time to enjoy the mountains. Learning the intricacies of finding the best snow, the most efficient route and how to navigate around hazards like avalanches will deepen your love and understanding of the mountains. This sport rewards you with solid exercise, your very own fresh ski lines and incredible satisfaction at the end of the day weather you ski one line or ten. Come learn this favorite activity of Coloradans and have the experience of a lifetime! Being a part of your MWR, our prices are often only half as much as commercial outfitters without sacrificing an inch of our high quality experiences.

SAFETY MEASURES

As a military entity, we are committed to keeping you and our staff healthy and following all local and AF guidelines for our operations to include distancing when possible and the use of masks when not. If you have questions about other ways we are adhering to all guidelines, please reach out!

OUR BACKCOUNTRY GUIDES

USAFA is proud to have indisputably the most experienced and highest trained staff in all of military MWR. We don't contract our trips out to other outfitters, instead, we make sure our guides are consistently at the forefront of guide training and avalanche education in the industry, often exceeding the standard for the commercial industry. As a center for excellence, USAFA OAP only hires the highest quality staff and provides nationally and internationally accredited training for our guides and our guests. Guiding in and around avalanche terrain is a complex and difficult job. Each USAFA backcountry guide has completed at a minimum, avalanche safety training to AIARE Level 2/Pro Level 1, has at least four seasons and 100 days of experience leading groups in avalanche terrain, is certified in Wilderness First Responder (WFR) or Wilderness First Aid (WFA) and has been through an extensive training and evaluation process to vet their guide quality. Our head guides are certified AIARE Level 3 Avalanche Professionals, Professional Members of the AAA, AMGA Certified Ski Guides and IFMGA guides with 15-25 years of backcountry guiding experience in Colorado, Alaska, Iceland, Japan, Europe and Canada. Our guides are exceptional educators. They are patient and excited to share their craft with you. They are lifelong backcountry users and professionals and are committed to delivering an incredible experience while prioritizing group safety. By ensuring your guides are thoroughly qualified, we can confidently say your trip will be of the highest quality! BACKCOUNTRY SKIING/SPLIT-BOARDING/SNOWSHOE HUT TRIPS

Jan 28-30, Feb 11-13, Mar 25-27

The Colorado Rockies hold amazing backcountry mountain hut systems which allow us to ski/snowshoe into secluded cabins in the mountains and enjoy the playgrounds of our National Forests for a whole weekend. Join us for one of these all-inclusive trips this winter and learn about travelling in the mountains in winter, avalanche safety, and ski/snowboard untouched powder, or snowshoe along high mountain ridges. Your experienced, AIARE/AMGA Certified guides will find you the good snow, teach you about the mountains. This trip is a great way to experience the

ACCREDITATIONS AND TRAINING

The American Institute for Avalanche Research and Education (AIARE) Provider is on the forefront of avalanche safety training and is the national standard for education in winter backcountry travel. As an AIARE provider, we offer four levels of avalanche safety training including our free evening Avalanche Awareness Class, one-day Avalanche Rescue Course, and three-day Recreational Level 1 and 2 safety courses. Accredited through the American Avalanche Association (AAA), these courses allow backcountry users to develop decision making in and around avalanche terrain, which is plentiful in Colorado. These skills are developed through mentorship, feedback, and hands on experience. We aim to create educated backcountry travelers that will be less likely to end up in avalanches and more likely to have long and happy lives in the mountains. For more information, visit avtraining.org

The American Mountain Guides Association (AMGA) is the only internationally recognized mountain guide training organization in the United States. As a member of the International Federation of Mountain Guides Associations (IFMGA), the AMGA offers the most robust and highest standard of education in this industry. It requires years of experience, course work, and examination to gain credentialing as a mountain professional. Our guides undergo training from the AMGA in many mountain disciplines, and our AMGA Certified Instructors and trained guides constantly offer in house continuing education and mentorship. For more information on the extensive training our guides pursue, visit amga.com ultimate Colorado lifestyle. Skiers and snowboarders should be physically fit, and proficient on black diamond slopes on ski resorts. This is one of our most popular programs and spaces often fill quickly.

Included: ski/snowboard/snowshoe equipment, lodging, transportation, meals and your guide(s).

Cost: $500/person. Eight people max. Must be at least 16 y/o. Meet at Outdoor Rec at 6:30 am on the first day and expect to be back by 7 pm on the last day. Call and ask about discounts for AF active duty and dependents!

HUT BASED SKI/SNOWBOARD MOUNTAINEERING CAMP

April 22-24

For the more experienced backcountry skiers and riders looking to break into running bigger lines in the high peaks. This three-day hut-based course will be focused on solid tour planning, learning snow climbing and rappelling techniques, and how to access and ride big lines with more technical skills required. Steep couloirs, alpine ridge traverses and big open faces are some of the terrain features we will encounter, along with learning how to build snow shelters, apply avalanche safety skills and refinement of your downhill movement. Our AMGA Certified Ski Guide will build up your understanding of how to access the lines you've always dreamed of in a measured and efficient approach. Skiers and riders should be expert level, able to ride any and all terrain on a resort, be physically fit and have at least two seasons of backcountry skiing under their belt. Camp includes equipment if needed, guide, transportation, camping equipment and meals.

Cost: $600/person. Call and ask about discounts for AF active duty and dependents!
