

CANCELLATION POLICY

Full payment for all trips is due at time of registration. Cancellations within ONE WEEK of the activity date will NOT be refunded or rescheduled unless otherwise stated.

Cancellations 30 days or more before a multi-day activity start date are refundable in full unless otherwise stated. Cancellations within 30 days of a multi-day activity will not be refunded unless someone takes your place on the activity. Any refunds issued in this case will result in a service fee of 10% of the total price for the activity.

"No Shows" are non-refundable and will not be rescheduled.

All trips are subject to cancellation due to unsafe weather or conditions outside of our control. In this event, the trip will be rescheduled or you may opt for a refund minus irretrievable deposits. In the case of cancellation due to insufficient participation, a full refund will be issued.

Refunds may be given within 30 days of the activity when a medical emergency or military TDY/PCS orders prohibit participation. A dated and signed doctor's note or signed orders must be presented within 72hrs of the document issue date in order to receive a refund in these cases. If a refund is given for a multi-day trip in this instance, OAP will retain a service fee of 10% of the total price for the activity. No refunds will be given in these cases after 30 days from the trip start date.

NOTICE: A High Risk Activities Worksheet (AF 4391) is required to participate in ANY high risk activity, for ALL Active Duty Personnel. It is required to be completed by Active Duty Personnel before they participate in most of our Outdoor Rec Adventure Programs. This responsibility lies solely on the Active Duty participant.

Scaling the crags, cliffs and towers around Colorado has been a long standing pastime in this state, stretching back to the days of WWII and the training regiments of the Tenth Mountain Division. Climbing in the US can find much of its roots in Colorado, and Colorado Springs specifically from some of the earliest climbs in the Garden of the Gods back in the 1920's, to the ascents of the towers of Cheyenne Canyon in the 40's, and the development of some of the most incredible granite crags and domes in the South Platte river basin from the 60's to the present. Colorado Springs and the surrounding areas are home to some of the best rock to learn basic techniques, as well as advanced climbing skills. Climbing is a lifetime and lifestyle sport for many, and as such leads to many rewarding and meaningful experiences. Even as a onetime activity, rock climbing is often one of the more impactful endeavors people will get the chance to pursue, both for the physical challenge, and for the immersion in the beauty of the mountains. At USAFA, we can provide rock climbing experiences ranging from beginner level, up to advanced multi-pitch climbing outings, and everything in between. We guide and instruct all over Colorado, as well as in Moab, Utah, Red Rocks in Las Vegas, and can go many other places around the country for whatever your climbing aspirations dictate. Climbing is an incredible sport to try and provides wonderful group, partner and individual opportunities for growth and adventure!

Our Rock Climbing Guides

USAFA is proud to have indisputably the most experienced, and highest trained staff in all of military MWR. We don't contract our trips out to other outfitters, instead, we make sure our guides are consistently at the forefront of guide training, often exceeding the standard for the commercial industry. As a center for excellence, USAFA OAP only hires the highest quality staff, and provides nationally and internationally accredited training for our guides, and our guests. Guiding in and around diverse rock terrain is a complex and difficult job. Each lead USAFA rock climbing guide or instructor are at a minimum certified Single Pitch Instructors. We are also the only AF MWR organization with AMGA/IFMGA Licensed Mountain Guides, the highest professional credential in the US for mountain guiding. Each of our staff have at least 3 seasons of experience leading groups in rock climbing terrain, is certified as a Wilderness First Responder (WFR) or in Wilderness First Aid (WFA), and has been through an extensive training and evaluation process to vet their guide quality. Our guides are exceptional educators, they are patient, and excited to share their craft with you. They are lifelong climbers and professionals, and are committed to delivering an incredible experience while prioritizing group safety. By ensuring your guides are thoroughly qualified, we can confidently say your trip will be of the highest quality, and your only disappointment will come from going back to normal life! Our guides are some of the best in the business and work hard to give you the best experience possible. Guide gratuity is encouraged and always appreciated! AMGA Training Standard

The American Mountain Guides Association (AMGA) is the only internationally recognized mountain guide training organization in the United States.

A member of the International Federation of Mountain Guides Associations (IFMGA), the AMGA offers the most robust and highest standard of education in this industry, requiring years of experience, course work, and examination to gain credentialing as a mountain professional. Our guides undergo training from the AMGA in many mountain disciplines, and our AMGA Certified Single Pitch Instructors and trained guides are constantly refreshed through in house continuing education and mentorship. For more information on the extensive training our guides pursue, visit www.amga.com.

Devil's Tower National Monument Rock Climbing Weekend

Fri-Sun, Sep 15-17. Due to the professional level of experience and certification of our guides, we have been able to secure an annual permit to climb at this historic landmark, a tower on the bucket list of any climber! This weekend includes transportation and camping, Dutch oven meals, guided single pitch climbing on the tower, and for experienced climbers, a summit climb! Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity to climb one of the most iconic towers in the country! Cost: $600/person. Ages 9+. Call and ask about our private trip opportunities here as well! USAFA observes the voluntary climbing closure through the month of June out of respect for Native American ceremonial traditions on this land.

AMGA Single Pitch Instructor Course/Assessment

Dates: Course: June 2-4, Sep 1-3; Assessment: June 9-10, Sep 9-10. Interested in learning more about climbing instruction and the professional side of the industry? Or, just want to learn some industry "best practice" style skills for single pitch climbing with your friend and family? These programs set you up for success with accredited, national level training in the industry professional standard for single pitch rock climbing instruction and skill sets, and are taught by AMGA/IFMGA Licensed Mountain Guides and SPI Providers. The three-day initial course teaches top rope systems managed from above and below, belay and rescue systems, and teaching techniques to help your students thrive in this new skill. The two-day assessment examines proficiency with these skills and allows the candidate to achieve certification through the American Mountain Guides Association as a Single Pitch Instructor if they pass. Prerequisites are required for entry into both training and assessment programs. Call 719-333-2940 or email 10fss.OAP@us.af.mil for more information and to sign up. Custom dates available.

Cost: three-day course - $575; two-day assessment - $450.

Includes instructors, accreditation fees, transportation. Does not include AMGA professional membership required for course/assessment participation.
